Dear Ham:

I enclose a translation of the Rakosi article. I understand this translation was made in the State Department, and naturally, I have not been able to check it. I also enclose the original magazine in which the article appeared which I borrowed from NCPI, who are also making a translation. I secured this magazine through my daughter, Toddy, who is working with NCPI, and she will call on you and pick up the magazine when you are through with it as they wish it for their files.

The Rakosi piece is very long and you may not find it suitable for your purposes, but in any event, parts are very interesting reading.

Sincerely,

S. H. Dulles
